“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Majied family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ My heart is truly aching about this; Ruby had a strong impact in my life and her smile will always be remembered.

It's been a while since I've last spoke to her, but I can clearly hear her voice and I can visualize her awesome and so-full of life personality which traveled down to her children.

I love how she raised her family, her realness and just her period. We made so many memories together and I'm just completely heartbroken.

My prayers go out to the family because everyone deeply loved and cherished her; I'm praying for strength for us all.

God Blessed – Rest in peace Ruby; I know that you will be the life of the party in heaven. Love you Always.

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to you on the loss of your loved one, Ruby. Rest assured that our Loving God sees your broken hearts and he invites you to throw all your burdens upon him and he will sustain you, especially now. (Psalm 34:18,55:22) Our Loving God has promised us in his Word that he will soon destroy death forever,(1 Cor. 15:26, Revelation 21:4) thereby 'binding up (or healing) our 'painful spots'. (Psalm 147:3). As we await the fulfillment of his word, may your hearts be comforted in knowing that God will do all that he has promised and will cause our hearts to rejoice in seeing our loved one again (John 5:28, 29; Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin##joyce jones###imported-end##

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the Majied Family. I worked with Ruby at DSS during the late seventies/early eighties. Ruby and I along with a few other colleagues learned to play Pinochle together. Ruby always brought humor, mother wit and a dose of reality to our group. She was a joy to know and a joy work with. I know she will be missed.##imported-begin##Eileen Wiggins##imported-end##
