“ I didnt really know what to write on this thing because I still can't believe my grandma is gone. But what saddens me the most is what will happen now. If she was the glue that kept my family together, who's going to do it now? I remember me and Montereia would have our fights and our arguments and she would always say "Go in there and give your cousin a hug. You the oldest, go give her a hug." Who's going to make us hug? Who's going to remind us that we are all we have and make us stick together? It's scary to think that what Grandma has work so hard to build up is going to crumble now that she is gone. Because unlike her, we behave very selfishly at times. I pray that we can get it together family. I pray that we will respect her enough to remain a family. I love you Grandma and I love my family...all of you!

“ I only spoke to seen or knew Miss Ruby for a short time thru working with Williams and Sharay, even though I knew Celeste and Renee before them but she was always so nice friendly and always took time to talk to me. I will miss her and our conversations and her big heart and smile. Forever in my mind and thoughts. Rest in Peace! Carmen # 12###imported-begin###carmen woods###imported-end##

“ Although the caring crowds and beautiful flowers will fade, God's love for you will never fade. He's with you through the tiresome days and sleepless nights. He's able to renew your strength and give you hope. Trust Him. He loves you! (John 3:16) When my sisters Beverly and Geraldine Sumler went to be with our Lord, our Lord blessed us with this poem. I hope it will also touch your family's heart. Please know that you are loved and in our prayers.

God saw the road was getting rough, the hill was hard to climb, He gently closed those loving eyes, and whispered, "Peace be thine." The weary hours, the days of pain, The sleepless nights are passed. The ever patient worn-out-frame has found rest at last.

Much love and God's continued blessing,
from the Smith and Sumler family###imported-begin###Zora, Trisha,

“ Ruby was truly a part of our family. She helped us with our Mother (Mrs. Woodard), and any other problems that might arise. Sometimes we just needed someone to listen, and Ruby would be there. Words cannot express the sorrow and loss we feel at Ruby's passing. She was a TRUE friend and we loved her dearly.##imported-begin##Juanita & Maxine (Woodard)##imported-end##

“ Con't, on a lighter note the one thing I am going to miss the most about Ruby is when she had enough of the foolishness and she would jump out that chair and begin to walk through that house and say " GOD DAMN IT..." That would tickle me down on the inside and she knew too. she would then give me that look and we would crack up laughing. To Miranda, Celeste, Scott, Leslie, Rene, and Fred. Ruby was truly loved and will be missed by my entire family. love you Effelina##imported-begin##Effelina Jones##imported-end##

“ Man, as I sit here fighting back the tears all I can say is UNBELIEVABLE! There are some people in your life you expect to be around 4 ever and you were one of them. Although you were very sick, you yet remained strong it was as if you were trying to protect us from being sad about your sickness. As selfish as it may seem when we would get together and you appeared that you were feeling find I would feel much better when I left you. Ruby, you continued to press on and push pass your pain you never behave like someone that was told the end was near. It is hard for me to say the words "I'm goin to miss her" It seems like your out of town or on vacation and when this is all over you will be back home again. However, the reality is I AM GOING TO MISS YOU! who will I call on Thanksgiving and ask "now how do I make dressing again" to here you respond in laughter and say "Girl you know how to make dressing" love Effie###imported-begin##Effelina Jones###imported-end##

September 24, 2008 at 10:53 AM

“ Hey Ruby, I so wish I could have had one more chance to see you before you had to leave us. Just one more time to hear that laugh and see that special look you got in your eyes. But I've got them right here in my heart and mind so I'll never forget. You could always look at us and know exactly the right thing to say couldn't you?

I don't think there are enough words to describe how much you are going to be missed. I know what you mean to me now and always, and I know you touched so many people in so many ways that a great many folks will be feeling the same way. You've earned that rest we talked about and while I know it hurts to not have you here, if anyone deserves to sit back and relax, GOD knows it is certainly you. I know you'll always keep an eye on us and I'm sure there will be times when we'll still hear your voice, guiding us like you always have. I miss you. I'll always love you. And I'll always know like you told the world "he'll always be my son-in-law".

Thank you Ruby. I'll always LOVE YOU!##imported-begin##Anthony Smith##imported-end##

“ We are going to miss Aunt Ruby so much.

I remember that Aunt Ruby would say, "Father I stretch my hands to thee, for theirs no other help I know.

From Rob

Aunt Ruby,

The conversations we shared will always set a pillar for family.

"Family" was a concept that was important to you. I will cherish this and continue that family is always suppose to stick with each other.

Pam

Aunt Ruby

I will remember the big hugs you gave me.

Kwaudraya

Aunt Ruby

I will remember the big kisses you gave me.

Jamera

August 16, 2008 will be a day for us to remember in our heart.
