“ Dear Family: Although I didn't know your loved one personally, I certainly understand how it feels to lose someone you love to death (Psalm 89:48), especially a dear mother. They are so very special and it is, indeed, a challenge to move on without them in our lives. May you find comfort in knowing that your loved one, Ruth is precious in God's eyes and will not be forgotten by him (Psalm 116:15)Our Loving God has promised us that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) and we will have the joy of seeing our dead loved ones again (John 5:28,29). While we await the fulfillment of his word, may you relish in your beautiful memories of her and may you find comfort of mind and heart knowing that all things will take place exactly as promised by God. (2 Cor. 1:3,4; Titus 1:2). Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ The Williams' family have my condolences during your time of lost. You should take comfort in knowing that, "To be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord", and your mother was a praying woman. Cyber Hugs to you all.##imported-begin##Marcella Amerson##imported-end##
