“ With Deepest Sympathy: It takes a long time to get used to the loss of someone we love. But it's important to remember that when people die they leave something very special behind. They leave us memories of the things they said and did. And as long as we have these memories the people we love will live on in our hearts and minds. Rev 21:4 helps us to see that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more.##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey McClendon##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Ward family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Death of a loved one is always hard to bear, but when it is a precious mother, the pain can be overwhelming. I just wanted you to know that others understand and share your pain, but especially does God know and feel your pain and he truly cares for you (1Peter 5:7). We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22) Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without DEATH, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). In time, may your hearts find comfort in what God has promised, for it will surely come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
