“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ Kevin, Kendra & Corbin my thoughts and prayers go out to you and family during this time of great loss. Your mother was awesome and loved dearly. I've never met anyone quite like her. I pray that God will cover you as you go through this time and may you stand on everything that she sowed into your lives. I know that she has given you enough to get you from earth to glory.##imported-begin##Janice Cranford##imported-end##

“ To The Williams family,
Sis. Sandra will forever be in our memories and she was truly a Prayer Warrior, I will always be eternally grateful for the blessings that she had prayed over myself and my family. I know that the LORD has welcomed yet another angel home because that's exactly what she was. I will continue to lift your family up in my prayers, God Bless.

“ To The Williams Family,
Loss of a loved one is never easy to accept, but when a life has been lived for the Lord it is never lost.
May you feel the peace of God as others lift you up in prayer.##imported-begin##Etonia Fayson##imported-end##

“ As I pondered the news of Sister Sandra's passing, I thought, "What a life well lived." A wife, a mother, an efficient and industrious coworker no doubt, and last of all a wonderful, active, and domineering presence in her church community. Wow! I remembered her stride and poise: confident, self-assured, and purposeful. I remembered the time she prayed a powerful prayer for me over the phone, the advice she gave me. I thank God that our paths crossed. Though this is a somber occasion for those who loved her and will miss her presence, I thought, "For her this is a celebration" and I imagined her walking in heaven. My sincere condolences to her family and friends. May God assist you all through this time of bereavement and celebration for a life WELL LIVED!!###imported-begin###Sis. Jozette E.
