“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ To the family, I have known and grown to love Sherry for 31 years of my life she has been a wonderful Godmom. When I heard about her passing I was deeply saddened all I could think about was when she would come and visit and made sure that she made tuna casserole. I no that Sherry wouldn't won't me to be sad so today I will hold my head held high and now that she lived a good life. K. My prayers are with all the Brothers and Sisters family and friends.##imported-begin##LaJoy Smith##imported-end##

“ We know your hearts are heavy; but look to the Lord where our comfort and help comes from. We just want you to know we're praying for you in your time of grief. We gonna miss Sherry, too. We can still look out of our Dad's back door and see what used to be Aunt Gay's house; also known as the Carter's house. We have many good memories which we continue to cherish and hold dearly. Al(Dump), Goldie, Jackie, Chrissy, James, Jeff Lisa & all rest of the family God Bless and keep you##imported-begin##The Bailey Family##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Although I didn't know Sherry personally, I still know how it feels to lose someone you dearly love for death has touched all of us at one time or another. (Psalm 89:48). May you find comfort in knowing that God is mindful of the devastating effects death has had on us (Romans 5:12) Therefore, he has promised a resurrection to life for all our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29) and death, itself, will soon be destroyed (1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 20:14). May these Scriptural truths help ease your mind and calm your hearts, knowing that God will soon accomplish all that he has promised, for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2, Isaiah 25:8). May deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ My journey with Sherry began in 2003 at the DHS-Lafayette District where we worked on the same staff. During my time at Lafayette Sherry and I became friends. She was a warm and loving person with a gentle spirit. No matter what she was going through she still had joy in her heart and praised God daily. Sherry thank you, for reminding me, not to sweat the small stuff. The last time I saw her was at my daughters open house, that memory will stay with me forever and also the love I had for her. Rest In Peace Sherry.

Love Always
