“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Samuel family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I Sincerely Offer My Condolence: Times like this make us sad. But, there is "a time to weep". (Ecclesiastes 3:4) Yet you can have the hope of seeing your love one. Jesus said "Do not let your be troubled". (John 14:27) Sometimes we may feel paralyzed by a tragedy such as this: Remember: God can help you to endure any and every problem they may face. He will give you the "power beyond what is normal" to go from one day to the next. Sherry's death has no doubt cast a shadow over you as you go about your daily life because death bring us face-to-face with the fact that she is gone too soon. The rich life that that she led has left many memories.##imported-begin##Geneva McClendon##imported-end##

“ Sherry you were definitely a child of God...I think of you living a long life.. You had so much to live for. I will never forget how proudly you explain the stain glasswindow to me. The shock of knowing you departed so soon. We just retired. we were discussing our lives after retirement. I know you are at peace. You will be missed. You are loved.##imported-begin##stephanie liverman##imported-end##
