“ McBroom,
May you know peace and most of all love in your loss. At a time like this we often feel helpless. But know that God is with you in this hurting time. He will minister to your deepest needs. By His Spirit He will give you comfort, peace, and assurance. Although you may not always feel His presence, He is truly there. Both Larry and I extend our sympathies.

“ I have been looking for my friend for a long time, I had just recently learned her last name. It saddens me that I saw this name in browsing the visitations and realized that I have found my friend too late. Shirley, Equilla and I were friends as teenager. I moved away, and we lost touch. I will have to catch up with her in heaven. I am so sorry for her lost to her family and I extend my sincere sympathy to them. I know that Shirley is now pain free and giving everybody up there some instructions on what they need to do.##imported-begin##Susan Patton##imported-end##

“ Dear Family,
I am comforted in knowing that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Auntie is in a better place. No more pain or suffering. I know that Auntie Shirley believed in God and that she was a woman of Grace and Dignity. Her legacy still lives on in the lives of her children & grandchildren. To her husband, Uncle Dan; you made her happy and was always by her side. I know that she loved you and i'm glad you were there. Know that she was well loved by many and always will be.##imported-begin##Sheldon & Rena Evans ##imported-end##
