

Mrs. Shirley Ann Gaines

September 19, 1957 - October 21, 2006

No obituary found for this tribute.

Previous Events

Service

Thursday, Oct. 26. 11:00 AM (ET)

Greater Emmanuel Institutional C.O.G.I.C.
19190 Schaefer Hwy.
Detroit, MI 48235

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Shirley Ann Gaines

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ Mama, it's been weeks since God called you home, weeks that I haven't been the same. I miss you so much there are no words that can describe my pain. I'm going to miss that smile, the way you shared your love for me, the memories that we had. Mama, Oh how I wish you were here to tell me how proud you are, mama I can remember the many times you would sit and listen to me vent about the troubles of life, but end it with don't give up, and mama I won't because you were my example, through good times and bad times you were always there for me, and for that mama I say thank you. Mama, you may be gone physically but you will always be alive to me because I will never let your memory die, but mama I will be alright why because the bible says to be absent from the body is to present with the Lord. Mama I'm proud of you, you raised me even after Daddy and Robert died and you taught me how to be a man, now mama because of you and your teachings I've been married 14 years at the age of 32 to the best wife a man could ever pray for 2 great sons and God called me to be an ordained preacher. Mama thank you for the core foundation that you brought me up on. I will continue to make you proud of me. I LOVE YOU SOOO MUCH MAMA!, But I will see you again until than rest my angel. Your oldest child

Eddie L. Jackson Jr. (B.K.A.) Jay##imported-begin##Eddie L. Jackson Jr.##imported-end##

December 09, 2006 at 02:41 PM

“Mama, it's been weeks since God called you home, weeks that I haven't been the same. I miss you so much there are no words that can describe my pain. I'm going to miss that smile, the way you shared your love for me, the memories that we had. Mama, Oh how I wish you were here to tell me how proud you are, mama I can remeber the many times you would sit and listen to me vent about the troubles of life, but end it with don't give up, and mama I won't because you were my example, through good times and bad times you were always there for me, and for that mama I say thank you. Mama, you may be gone physically but you will always be alive to me because I will never let your memory die, but mama I will be alright why because the bible says to be absent from the body is to present with the Lord. Mama I'm proud of you,you raised me even after Daddy and Robert died and you taught me how to be a man, now mama because of you and your teachings I've been married 14 years at the age of 32 to the best wife a man could ever pray for 2 great sons and God called me to be an ordained preacher. Mama thank you for the core foundation that you brought me up on. I will continue to make you proud of me. I LOVE YOU SOOO MUCH MAMA!, But I will see you again until than rest my angel. Your oldest child

Eddie L. Jackson Jr. (B.K.A.) Jay###imported-begin##Eddie L. Jackson Jr.###imported-end##

December 09, 2006 at 02:37 PM