“ *To the family of Sydonia Loretta Akins,
I am so sorry for your loss. Would you like to see your dead loved one again? Thinking about reuniting with one who has passed may seem farfetched. However, the bible gives hope to those who have lost loved ones in death. At Revelation 21:4 it says “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” I hope this could provide a small measure of comfort to you. If you have any more questions, feel free to ask any one of Jehovah’s Witness. I will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Brenad Jones##imported-end##*

“ *To the Atkins family;
May God keep you in your time of mourning, Know that God has purpose for everything he does. We may not understand why such things happen, Yet we should thank and praise him for allowing us to love on his most precious creation.##imported-begin##The Evans Family##imported-end##*

“ To Atkins family, The greastest comfort we have in the time of loss is knowing that death does not have the last word..Jesus does. And his words declares, "I am the resurrection and the life....whoever lives and believes in me will never die." May the promise of the resurrection bring you comfort, even in the midst if sorrow. Love always Shanty and family##imported-begin##Shanty Esters and family##imported-end##

“ Aunt Donnie,

You are my Daddy's dear sister. My only regret is that we did not grow closer. Say hello to Aunt Sandra and my Daddy for me.

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Akins family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Akins family, Please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Sydonia Loretta. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This hope is held out to all mankind, including Ms. Sydonia Loretta. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones, no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised that soon death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 5:28,29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one, Sydonia, and the precious memories she left you,that you will also find much comfort and reassurance in Jehovah God's promises to us for the near future. (Jeremiah 29:11) Keep them close to your heart for they will not fail to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
