“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time. The Bible offer such comfort at Isaiah 25: 8 Please read it. . I hope it will bring you some comfort to you and your family in the coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ To the Butler and Williamson family;

Our hearts are sad today as we prepare to say farewell to our sister Sylvia. Milfred and her entire family welcomed me into their family over forty years ago, when I married and moved to Cleveland from North Carolina. What a blessing to be a part of such a big loving family.
Peace be with you Sylvia. I love you and we will miss you.

“ I can't say enough about whom I called, "SILVER GIRL." Her beautiful smile, the fun and the laughter that we shared together. The self-defense and karate moves that we would use on each other every time that we met. I will take those memories with me until we meet again. I know in my heart that she is in a much better place, and what better place to be than with my Lord and Savior Jesus The Christ. My prayers are with you, your family and friends. “ I see a woman so strong with a smile that brights up the night, I see a woman who is strong and gives so much comfort to all those she loves and she loves us all. I see a woman who gives us strength, I see a woman who is a woman and loves all, who else does? When we got together and walked in her mothers house, the family said heres trouble, we weren't trouble, we enjoyed life and our time together. I'll never forget the special time I spent with Slyvie and Mike, we laughed all day and night and had a ball.
God blessed me with that time and my prayers go out to her family, from our family, Mom, Reba, Ricky and Arthur. She was there for us in our time of need and I will never forget those moments.##imported-begin##Carolynne Smith-Broughton##imported-end##
