“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to you on the loss of your loved one, Stanley. I do not presume to know exactly what you are feeling, but please know that others, like myself, understand your pain, for who of us among mankind has not lost a loved one to the enemy death? (Psalm 89:48) It's not easy to endure the loss of someone we love, and it can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. May your hearts, like mine, find comfort, hope and reassurance in God's Word where he states: "He (God) will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God shall wipe away tears from off all faces (Isaiah 25:8). May your loved one awaken to a world where there will be no more wars or strife of any kind (John 5:28, 29; Psalm 46:9) and he will then be able to live on this earth as Jehovah God originally intended, in peace, (Psalm 37:11, 29) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:34) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4) This is God's promise to us and it shall, without fail, soon take place. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To the Miller family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort through the Word of God. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..."-Isaiah 25:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ Dear Mr. Miller,
Words seem inadequate to express the sadness I feel at the loss of your son, Stanley; may your heart and soul find tranquility and solace as time progresses. I'm praying for peace to bring you comfort, courage to face the days ahead, and adoring memories that will forever hold Stanley in your heart. May you feel the precious love of The Father as he wraps His arms of protection around you and replenish you with His mercy, grace, and the return of great joy in due season.
Prayerfully yours,
Ms. Barber##imported-begin##Ms. J. Barber##imported-end##
