“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences. Death will not always be an enemy of mankind. "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in sthe mmsemorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". John 5:28,29##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". Death is mankind's worst enemy because it robs us of our loved ones. However, our Loving Creator has promised that he will destroy death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26) and that the time is coming, very soon, when 'all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out...' (John 5:28,29) Our God has also promised that "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH (no matter the cause) will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore." (Revelation 21: 3,4) May, Jehovah, the God of all comfort, give you strength beyond what is normal to cope with the death of your precious loved one, Stanley. In the weeks ahead, may His Word, the Bible, remind you of his promises, for they are sure to come true, and know, too, that He also cares for you (Titus 1:2, 1 Peter 5:7) My sincere and deepest heartfelt sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
