“ To Ron, Kenny, and Greg:
"Peace I leave with you. My peace I give you; not as the world gives do I give you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid."
John 14:27
We are so sorry for the loss of your brother and our cousin "Stevie". I will always remember when we hung out and drove my aunt Alice and your uncle Earl crazy.
"Stevie had the best laugh in the world!
so sorry we could not be there with you and the family at this time, but hope you do find the peace and comfort only our Lord can give.
We love you.

“ To the brothers of Steve; Ronald, Kenny, and Gregory. I am so glad that I spoke with Steve about three weeks ago on the phone, after receiving a call from Greg that Steve was sick, and Greg asked me to call Steve and offer him words of encouragement, and so I did. When I called Steve, we talked and had a joy filled conversation about our Faith in God and having great joy in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, we prayed together, and Steve told me that he would never loose his faith and joy in God. That was my last conversation with Steve. So my counsel to you brothers, Ron, Kenny, Greg. Stay in love with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Keep your Faith strong in God. Two of your closest family members now have fallen asleep, your mom Alice who I greatly loved and respected, and now Steve, they both wait the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, when the trumpet will sound and the voice of the archangel will shout and the graves will open for the dead in Christ to awake and be caught up in the sky to be with the Lord and we who are alive, if we remain faithful will be caught up after and together with the dead in Christ. I say stay strong, Love the Lord Jesus Christ with all your hearts. Keep the Commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus Christ. I love you all. “ Stephen, it was only less than a year ago that we spent our fun time together again at the very memorable 50th birthday party for your brother Judge Greg Mathis at the Warner Brothers Studio in California. Then when I think of all the fun times we had growing up in Detroit, with all your brothers, Ronald, Kenny and Greg; and with your Mom, Alice, because our Mothers were very good friends. I do love all of you. I will cherish all the good memories. Love Always Your Cousin, Addison T Hines###imported-begin###Addison T Hines###imported-end###

“ I recall a quote by Maya Angelou that reminds me a lot of Steve...

*People will forget what you said,
people will forget what you did,
but people will never forget how you made them feel.*

Steve always had a unique way of bringing out the laughter and smiles. He was the light of every room he entered and touched the heart of every person he met. Steve, we love you and will sorely miss your smiling face and vibrant presence...we will always remember the way you made us feel. Peace and blessings to you, our dear Cousin Steve

For the many family and friends: God walks with us. He scoops us up in His arms or simply sits with us in silent strength until we cannot avoid the awesome recognition that yes, even now, He is there.

“ When God's will is done on earth, people will not get sick or die because of inherited sin and imperfection. The dead in God's memory will have the opportunity to live forever, for the Bible promises: "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) To the family I offer my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
