1. A Son
2. A Brother
3. A Uncle
4. A Father

these were the four stages of his life he kept a smile on his face and his head held high. no matter who got in his way or what got in his way he was loving and believing. he pretended that there where was nobody around except the people who believed in him. i love and miss you uncle fee. :D :P##imported-begin##lil mama##imported-end##

“ To the Cowan Family,
I'm very sorry for the death that you've experienced in your family recently. I've just been sharing a comforting scripture with you and similar individuals who have lost dear loved ones in death. John 11:25 says... "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."
I also agree with the bible when it says at Acts 24:15... that there will be a resurrection, of both the righteous and unrighteous!
My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.. please know that I' am thinking of you and your family during this hardship.
Thank you for your time,
Sincerely,

“ My heart breaks as I see the picture of Steve. A young man with a heart of gold. It's so important to reflect on the happier times you shared together. Look at photos and videos; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the "God of all comfort", who will comfort us in all our tribulation". 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15.###imported-begin###Mrs. Malone###imported-end##

“ Steve and have been friends since we were 14. We had our differences but at the end of the day we were still friends. I remember when he took me to meet Mamma Toni & Ric. They treated me like I was there son & brother. And my family embraced Steve as well. From childhood to adulthood our friendship stood the test of time. Steve not only made an impact on my life, it carried on to my children. To them he was Uncle Steve! Steve helped with homework, picked them up from school & even cooked for them at times& even went trick or treating with them . Steve never hesitated when it came to his neices and nephew! I am forever grateful for that. He will be greatly miss! From my family to yours we love you and are here for you. We are only seperated by miles, I am only a phone call away!

Love,

Big Ed##imported-begin##Mr. & Mrs. Edward Foster##imported-end##
