“ *Dear Brown family,
I am writing to you to express my condolences over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Thelmer Lynette. The bible's clear teachings remove confusion about what happens to us at the time of death. The scriptures plainly show that death is the enemy that will be destroyed by God (please read 1 Corinthians 15:26) this scripture shows the compassion that God has for us. May this post be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezell##imported-end##*

“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Brown family,
Please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Thelmer Lynette. The bible holds out a wonderful hope for a future resurrection at (Job 14:14) where it says: "If an able bodied man dies, can he live again..." This is what I wish for Ms. Thelmer. May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Those we have loved will always be with us. Their laughter and their wisdom, their advice and their thoughtfulness are gifts of love that are ours to keep. May you find comfort in your memories of of your loved one, Thelmer. May God's promise of a resurrection and life without death (Revelation 21:4) bring strength and peace to your hearts (John 5:28,29, Psalm 37:29) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness.’ For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Tillery family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
