“ To the family and friends of Ms. Darby, she was a very special woman. In her career she established many relationships with students seeking employment, and with employers needing employees. This was her task and she worked at it diligently and always with a smile. As a Focus: HOPE student, she would readily give me advise on ways to improve my search for the right job choice. Sometimes, I would even call just to chat about the outlook of the job market in today’s economic crisis. Now, I find it hard to believe that she’s gone, so soon, and without any notice.

May God keep and comfort you,
