“ I am sincerely sorry for the loss of Tinora. Her picture seems like she was an array of sunshine. Even though I did not know her personally, being so young, she really touched my heart.

The bible offers much comfort to us who have lost someone that we love so dearly. (I can talk from personal experience). Revelations 21:3-4 says, the tent of God's protection will be with mankind . . . "and God will wipe out every tear (including yours)from your eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain the former things will pass away".

We look forward to the time when our dead loved ones will rise in the resurrection. John 5:28-29 comforts us too - "All those in the memorial tombs" will be resurrected.

I pray that you can draw some comfort from the bible. It gives us hope beyond our imagination, only if we have and maintain our hope and faith in Jehovah and his promises. Hebrews 11:1 Faith is the assured expectation of things hoped for though not beheld. We have to develop faith and stay strong, and rely on the sacrifice of Jesus for all of us including Tinora.

With Sincere Sympathy,

“ Hi Karen,
I love you! I'm so sorry for your loss. You are such a strong, courageous woman. You've had many obstacles in your life in which you've remained strong, a rock and I've always admired you because of that. Keep the faith, be of good courage for God has conquered the world. Kiss Dayna and Lonnie for me. I hope to see you all soon.

I love you, Ingrid##imported-begin##Ingrid Corpening

“ Karen, my heart goes out to you and your family on the loss of Tinora. I will always remember Tinora's hearty laugh and warm smile. She doesn't have to suffer any longer. Tinora is in a better place now. I pray that God gives you the strength needed in the days to come. Deanna and Daytwan (?sp) please be strong.##imported-begin##Michele Standifer##imported-end##
