“ Dear Neighbor,
We are sadden to hear of Mrs. Lowe's recent transition. Our fondest memory of her was the "bright gleam in her eyes" as she shared her story of her mission work over seas. We still have the cloth she gave us after returning from her trip. We were so proud of her, taking a journey that many would not dare think of. Her sharing her experience with us revived our spirit and reminded us that life is about our service to the Lord and humankind. We know that her teachings & spirit will live on through you all.

You are all, in our hearts and prayers. Tracey once sent to me a Pin and Card. It read, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Phil 4:13. “ Dear Family, One of the things I will always remember about Trenise was that she praised the Lord in all things. Despite her suffering, she believed in Him. She proclaimed "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid." (Psalm 27:1) She looked forward to seeing her savior. Blessings on you.##imported-begin##Dorothy Sample##imported-end##

“ The Lord is my light and my salvation whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life of whom shall I be afraid? ..one thing that I ask for is that I may dwell in the house of the Lord, all the days of my life to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord and seek Him in His temple. For in the day of trouble He will keep me safe in His dwelling, He will hide me in the shelter of His tabernacle and set me high upon a rock...I will sing and make music to the Lord...your face Lord I will seek. Tracy, in your illness you never once stopped showing your concern for others in asking if they were alright. What an awesome example of waiting patiently to be set high upon the rock to sing His praises while in such intense pain. The majority of us would not been able to tolerate it so peaceable. Now Tracy, you can gaze upon the beauty of the Lord for you have been exalted. In our grieving, we miss you, and if we live right, we will see you again.##imported-begin##Stephanie Barber##imported-end##

“ My heart is saddened by your loss. I first met Trenice at at a WMU event in Las Vegas, Nevada several years ago. We knew were were kindred spirits immediately and sat together at several meals. My impression of Trenice was that her heart was waaaay too big to fit in her chest. Her love for the Lord, His people and the LOST world was very evident. I know that Heaven is rejoicing over her home going. Much love and many prayers, Caroline Jones###imported-begin##Caroline Jones###imported-end##

The family of national WMU grieves with you today in Trenise's death. We also join you in celebrating her homegoing to be with the Lord Jesus Christ. She is finally where she desired to be more than anything else and with the One she loved more than her earthly family, friends, and church. “ I had the pleasure of going to High School with Tracey (Redford). Tracey and Aunt Alice were the BEST! They both touched my life in a special way.

The visit to the farm in Lansing, Michigan, our trip to Indiana and many of our other adventures will never be forgotten.

Lossie, Deborah, Tracey and I shared a friendship that will always be remembered.

We pray that your hearts not be heavy and that God continues to bless you and keep you strong as you remember the beauty of Tracey!
