“ MiMi & Yvette: Words truly fall short of expressing my sorrow for the lost of not just your mother...but your best friend. Just remember, when someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. Yes, death does leaves a heartache that no one can heal, but the love that you too shared with Valeta will leave you every lasting memories that no one can steal. So, when the sun begins to shine for you again, please remember that life is for the living. The greatest compliment to Valeta is to live your life and keep her memory alive. “ I am so sorry for your loss. It's so important to reflect on the happier memories you shared with Mrs. Carson. Look at photos and videos; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the "God of all comfort", who will comfort us in all our tribulation". Even though it doesn't seem like it, there are brighter days ahead. Trust in Jesus words at John 5:28-29, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out". 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ MiMi, Vette and Nick....Words cannot express how deeply saddened I have been since receiving the call on last Friday afternoon. Everytime I try to comfort you with words, the words seem to fail me. Please know that your mother touched the lives of so many in a profound way. I will never forget the laughter, words of wisdom and lashings received just when needed. She had a beautiful heart that will live on in the three of you and in all of us blessed by her life.##imported-begin##Tammy Klugh##imported-end##

“You can shed tears that she is gone,
or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,
or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her only that she is gone,
or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what she'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.” ~David Harkins
