“ Dear Family

Let me give my condolence to the the family first. I am truly sorry for your loss. We all know that the pain, grief and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such times we need to go to God's Word the Bible for comfort. The Bible helps us to understand about how Jehovah God, and his Son Jesus Christ feels about death. Jehovah hates death, this is not what he intended for mankind. Man was put here on earth to live in a paradise surrounding forever. But we know that through the disobeient act of Adam and Eve, death entered on to the earth. But we have a hope! Rev 21:1-5 explain that there will be a new Heavens and New Earth and there will be no more sickness, death and wickedness that we have today. Please when you get a quite moment, look at this scripture. Know that there Jehovah is here, and he has a way!###imported-begin##Denise Enoex###imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ To the Gaines-Williams family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort through the Word of God. “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more...”-Rev. 21:4.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##
