“ Please accept this post as an expression of my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms Veda Jane. The bible holds out a sure hope of a resurrection for all of those who fall asleep in death. The wise man Job expressed it this way when he said at (Job 14:14) "If an abled bodied man dies can he live again...". The bible helps us to appreciate that this is a possibility that has been set before each and everyone of us. May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Although I didn't know your loved one, Veda, personally, I can still certainly relate to the loss of a loved one, for who of us have escaped it's affect on our lives. (Psalm 89:48). I know there are tears in your eyes today for your dear loved one, but our Loving God has promised us at Revelation 21:4 that soon "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more...". Hard to imagine though it may be, God has promised it. (John 11:25,26) He has also promised to resurrect our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29) Yes, we have the opportunity to see them again. Mankind will then be able to live out his days free of sickness and death in a world made perfect by him. (Isaiah 33:24; Psalm 37:29, 1 Corinthians 15:26, Psalm 133:3) May you find comfort in all that God has in store for us. May His Word ease the pain in your hearts, for ALL he as purposed will surely come to pass. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Aunt Veda, you will always be in our hearts, you will be missed. I will miss looking at the phone and seeing your name appear on my caller id, I will miss that laugh, the conversations but I know that even though you are not here with us physically you will be with us every where.
Aunt Veda, you were a unique individual and those that never had a chance to meet you missed out. I am so happy to know that I had an opportunity to have known you, I am touched to have had an aunt like you.

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Ellington family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
