“ *Sincerest sympathy from the Kosir family. Mom and Dad would ask about you and Charles over the years. Dad passed away in 2006, and Mom is not well.
Still, she fondly remembers Velva.*

She was a kind, energetic and gifted woman who left us too soon. She helped take care of many patients over the years. We have all been enriched by knowing her. She was a gift to the world.##imported-begin##Mary Kosir##imported-end##

“ I am looking at the beautiful picture of Velva that is posted on this site & remembering what an outgoing person she was. I remember how she used to make me laugh & how she was always the life of the party.
I look up at the pictures on the wall behind her & am startled to see a picture of my father, Elder Kelly.
Wow!!
We WILL see Velva again "When We All Get To Heaven!"###imported-begin##Nadine Kelly-Timpson##imported-end##

“ Velva was my "partner in crime". She was my sister and I will miss her. May God's grace be with you Charles, and your family. Velva is just sleeping now. The fight now belongs to us. We must not faint or grow weary. It won't be long now before we see Him coming in the clouds. What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Marshella Reid Fenison##imported-end##

“ To the Hughley family - Sometime words are so difficult to come by, during the loss of someone so dear as Velva. The bible gives us the hope and comfort we need, during this difficult time. 2 Corinthian 1:3-4. Jehovah is the, “God of all comfort” and HE helps us understand how He and Jesus Christ feel about death; which is an enemy that pursues us all. None of us can out run it. Jehovah is far more powerful than death. Jehovah is our rescuer who has already shown (by Jesus resurrection) that he can defeat this enemy. 1 Corinthians 15.26 (As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing). Isaiah 26:19 “your dead ones will live ...they will rise up”. We WILL be reunited with our loved ones by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth in peace and happiness in the very near future. Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will give you power beyond what is normal to be able to deal with this terrible loss. You are in my prayers. We will be able to see Mrs. Hughley very soon in the new world.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ To the family of Velva, words cannot express the loss that you feel. No one will miss her and love her like you do. Velva was loved by so many and will truly be missed by all. She was truly a very loving, caring friend of ours for many years. Velva, we will take care of Papa Doodle but probably not like you did. We know that we will all see again in heaven, we did not tell you but MeMe is there waiting for you. Velva, we love you. To the family our condolences go out to you, be encouraged. May your saviour comfort you in your time of grief.##imported-begin##Sheila and Richard Pouncy/Graves Family##imported-end##

“ May the family find the condolation in the "Power beyond what is normal", to go from day to next. "May be God's and not that out of ourselves." (1Corinthians 4:). I extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
