“ We applaud you for a wonderful life, long and well lived. We thank you for making a better way for those of us who each day benefit from what you endured through years of struggle in an America which had not yet embraced us. We will not forget those who have gone before, and may you now rest well sister.

“ My Love and Heart goes out to the family of Mother Ward - It sadden me that I can not be with you at this time. My spirit is with you all holding you up in Prayer. May Our God keep you lifted up and remember Our Mother as the sweet, gentel, loving and graceful person she was and still is in eternal life. I have learned so much from her that carries me through life and preparing me for eternal life. Love Joan###imported-begin##Joan A Brooks###imported-end##
