“ Dear Family,

Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I may not have it in my power to do all that I want to do, but I know the one who does. May He bless and keep you always.

I love you,

“ I, as a member of your extended family, say to each and every one of you that you have my love, my sympathy, and concern at this time of our bereavement. She was not legally my mother-in-law, but in my heart she was. She always accepted me as family, and so have the rest of you, and I will always appreciate the love and kindness I have continually been shown by all of you over the 30+ years I have been around. I am here, as always, for all of you, and is willing and ready to help in any way I possibly can. Our families have know each another for nearly 40 years, and we all will always be a part of the special Longfellow Family! I love you all!###imported-begin##Tyra S. Horton##imported-end##
