“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ *It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”###imported-begin##agnes

“ I speak not to your old house, but to the new. This world is a better place because of people like you that have left a legacy of love, patience and longsuffering that we can imitate and not be ashamed. I believe because of the life that you live, that you have a home in God's kingdom, and you are hearing him say well done, thou good and faithful servant. This is not the end; look for me because I hope to meet you there. Love Always, Sis. Salter.##imported-begin##Sister Flossie Salter##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mother Brown: Mother Brown is a jewel that was chosen to impact the world by her simplicity and her gift of teaching. She is a teacher of many: babies, children, youth adults. Many have learned and understood the Word of God by listening to her. Her fruit and labor will remain and produce more fruit for the kingdom of God.A bishop teacher, an elder teach, a preacher teacher, a missionary teacher, a child teacher and an adult teacher and a teacher to whomever had an ear to hear.##imported-begin##Patricia Daniel##imported-end##

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep: I am not there. I do not sleep. I Am a thousand winds that blow. I am a diamond's gill on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush. I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there, I did not die.”

“ Dear Family: Mrs. Ida was certainly privileged with the gift of longevity (Psalm 90:10) Even so, I know your heart still breaks because the enemy, death, has separated you from your loved one. May God's promise to (soon) destroy death (Isaiah 25:8) and to resurrect those 'sleeping' in death (John 5:28, 29; 11:11-14) bring comfort to your hearts today and in the days ahead. My deepest sympathy to you.”

“ As a child, we remember Mother Virginia Brown coming to East Hill Church Of God In Christ in Pensacola, FL preaching and teaching the Word of God. We didn't really understand the meaning of being saved, then, but now that we have grown, we are certain of the reality in Jesus Christ. Mother Brown was the sister of our spiritual father in the gospel, the late Dr. Robert L. Powell Jr. It was Dr. Powell, Mother Dorothy Powell, Robin Powell, and many more of the Powell family who has impacted our life. We praise God for her life and the work Mother Brown worked for Jesus Christ. She has entered into her rest from labor. God is well pleased! Her seat is empty here, but it is filled in Heaven! Our prayers are with the Brown and Powell family. God Bless You!###imported-begin###Mr. and Mrs. Destin Johnson###imported-end###

“ As a child, my fondest and most precious memories of Aunt Virginia were when she would become a snowBunny from around Thanksgiving until the end of January or sometimes longer. I knew to prepare my tummy for her special dishes and baked goods. She always found things for her hands to do even when it was clear her hands weren't in the best of shape to do any of it. Dee, Roger, Bruce and Melanie, thanks for your faithful service caring for Aunt Virginia. You will reap what you have greatly sown. Take joy and comfort in knowing you have done well and Auntie is in a better place. Aunt Virginia kept the faith and faught a good fight so we know without a doubt where her reward is and thank God for her life. My prayers are with you all. I LOVE YOU - Robin###imported-begin###Robin C Powell###imported-end###
