“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ Dear Barber family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms Vivian. I am writing to share with you the bible's hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able-body man dies, can he live again..." This hope is held out to all mankind, including to Ms. Vivian. May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ To The Family Of Vivan Yvonne Barber: The precious of Vivan Barber will bring you comfort. However, even in the face of calamity you can have hope. God will comfort and bless you at this critical time. Do not let your hearts be troubled. (John 14:27). Complete reliance on "the God of all comfort" will help to endure his bereavement (2Cor. 1:3,4).##imported-begin##Geneva McClendon ##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel during times of distress such as this. What a wonderful God we have - he is the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of every mercy, and the one who comforts and strengthens us in our hardships and trials. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). The Bible tells us that there is hope for our dead loved ones. It makes this promise “and I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15). May the scriptures be a true source of comfort and hope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Patricia Beckum, please accept my sincerest condolences for the loss of your loved one. Life will be quite a challenge without them in our lives and adjustments may be difficult at times. The emotional pain and utter feelings loneliness even though you're in a room full of friends and relatives can be overwhelming at times. Please, know this dear family that God Jehovah is a strong refuge for those grieving because of the loss of a family member or even friend. He is near to those "crushed at heart" and "broken in spirit" (Psalms 9:9).##imported-begin##Jackie##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Vivian Yvonne Barber: When someone beloved and special falls asleep in death it is very hard to let go of the fact that they are gone. We long to hold them in our arms again and experience their laughter and smiles again, we miss and long to experience their love again and the missed opportunities to say I love you again or even to cook them a tasty meal again. Just think about the fond memories and the fact God offers and promises a wonderful hope for our loved ones and doing that will help ease the pain of your grief so that in the coming days you will have comfort and peace (Isaiah 26:19)##imported-begin##Jackie##imported-end##
