“ Dear Family:

May I offer my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one, Mrs. Betty.

Nothing can be more devastating to us than the death of someone we love...especially a mother. Mother's are so special and it is a challenge, indeed, to move on without them in our lives. But our Loving Creator has given us reason for hope...the sure hope of seeing our loved ones again. At John 5:28,29 he teaches us that 'the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out'. At Revelation 21:4 our God promises that 'he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more'. Isaiah states that our Loving God will 'swallow up' DEATH forever! (Isaiah 25:8) Why? Because death is mankind's worst enemy. It separates us from those we love so much and Jehovah will delight in destroying it! (1 Corinthians 15:26). In the days and weeks ahead, may you find comfort in God's Word as you look ahead to the fulfillment of his promises sure to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dear Shannon, so sorry to hear of your lost I know there are difficult days ahead but rest assure your Mother's love lives on.

Love Lives On

Those we love are never completely gone - we feel them in so many special ways- through the family and friends they've always cared about and precious memories they've left behind, in the beauty they added to our days, and their words of wisdom we carry inside...

Those we love are never completely gone - For everywhere their special love lives on.

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Brown family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
