“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Curtis family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Our Heavenly Father, Jehovah knows how deep our grief is. We long for the touch of a hand, the sound of a voice that has been silenced. He is merciful and kind. He will comfort our grieving hearts and wipe the tears from our eyes. He understands us, because he created us. (Revelation 7:16-17) He is the one who tells us: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) "For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, 'Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.'"##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Curtis family, please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Wilhelmeana. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful promise of a future resurrection. The bible's clear teachings remove confusion about what happens at death. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
