“ Dear Family: I didn't know your loved one personally, but I do know how it feels to lose someone you love (Psalm 89:48). May you find comfort in knowing too that Mrs. Willie Mae is precious in God's eyes and will not be forgotten by him (Psalm 115:16)Our Loving God has promised us that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) and we will have the joy of seeing our dead loved ones again (John 5:28,29). While we await the fulfillment of his word, may you relish in your beautiful memories of her and may you find comfort of mind and heart knowing that all things will take place as promised (2 Cor. 1:3,4; Titus 1:2). Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Jordan family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ In times like these it is hard to find the right words to say. But know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers. Losing a loved one is always hard, but the great memories is what helps us make it through. Reflect on the many lives she touch and the love she gave.
