“ Continued blessings to you all at this time of transition. I can very much relate with the passing of a parent during the holiday season. But be encouraged for if you believe on He that sits enthroned on high you will see your beloved again. Until that time cherish the wonderful memories that will forever be in your heart. For know this, she is not dead, but just sleeps, awaiting that bright and joyous morning when we all will be caught up to be with Our Lord and Saviour. “ Charles and Michella:
Just remember:
What wonders await her in yonder fair land?
The face of her Savior the touch of his hand,
No tears and no crying, no sighs or despair,
For Jesus is waiting to welcome her there. (Kerr)
When GOD wipes her tears, sorrow will give way to eternal song.
Be comforted in knowing that absense from the body means presence with the LORD - for his own.
Charles and Michella: Know that I will be praying for you (and yours)always. Bert###imported-begin##Wilberta Johnson###imported-

“ Charles, I lit a candle in memory of your Mother when she died and on the day she was laid to rest. I was so blessed to have talked with Ms. Willie Mae and will always remember her most generous heart and love for Jesus. You can rejoice that your Mother is in a better place. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies, and whoever lives and believes in me will never die." May you find comfort in these words, and also know that memories of your Mother are like stars in the dark night of sorrow, but time will soften the pain until all that remains is the beauty of memories and love. Heart and prayers are with you. Myrtle Ann & Nikki###imported-begin###Myrtle G. Lucas###imported-end###

“ I have known you since we were 13 yrs. old. We are now at the staging of our lives where we have seen our parents leave us and we are the seniors. It is difficult for us, but you are strong in spirit. Your Mom will always be there in your heart. My warmest sympathies to you and your family.##imported-begin##C. Dianne Wilson##imported-end##

“ How are you doing? It's going to be a little while before you will feel okay about your mother. I know, the number of tears we shed shows how much we loved that person. I still shed a few sometimes. I will pass this e-mail along. How is Charles? If its anything I can do, and I mean it, let me know. And remember, when you feel down look up to Jesus. Talk to U later.##imported-begin##Michelle Oglesby Hammond##imported-end## my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in the homegoing of your mother.

I know it feels as though your mother was taken from her earthly body to soon; however the scripture says "All things work together for the good of them that love God, and to them who are called according to his purpose" and your mother's purpose on this earth was completed.

God loves her more than we can ever, ever imagine.

I have walked down this same path not so long ago, but I do know and realize that God will hold you and comfort you just as a mother nurse's and cares for her children. Your mother has now gone back to her father, which is in heaven.

I can only say to your please remember all the good times, and the times that weren't so joyous and hold them close, close and dear to your heart.

God allowed you 60 years with your mother, and I only had 46 years. Cherish those moments and give God praise and thanks for that time.

Your friend

“ Charles mama carried this card with her to remember who she was and what she believed. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. Revelation 1:8 Today, tomorrow, always... may you feel the warmth of God's presence. Mom wrote in the card Some one that God loves and I pray for all the time. I love you. At this time in our lives God will keep us protect us as well as guide us always through life.##imported-begin##Michella Maria Perry##imported-end##
