“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ To the Gillespie Family, I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength from God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states " God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more". This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra Sargent##imported-end##

“ Mary
Rest in peace! You have left many wonderful memories to all of us. I often think about the wonderful dinners and conversations we shared on those Sundays. You, Wendy, and I often talked for hours! I was very glad that Sam shared his life with you, and that Wendy had another Grandmother!

Love

“ Dear Family: May I extend my sincere condolences to you on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Willie Mary. The Bible teaches us that death is mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love so much. But, our Loving God also tells us in his Word, the Bible, that he will destroy death...forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26) And, he promises to resurrect those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Mankind will then be able to live out his life, here on earth, as he originally intended: "The righteous shall inherit the land (earth), and dwell therein forever". (Psalm 37:29; Matthew 5:5) free of sickness, (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4) May knowing what God will do shortly, bring comfort to your hearts. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
