“ To My Cousin Doraine

I haven't known what to say to you for the last 2 weeks. I didn't want to say the wrong thing. I would never want to upset you. I can't say that I know how you feel. Yes, my heart aches because I lost my aunt. But she was your mom. You and your mom had a special bond. A bond that may not be understood by all because it wasn't for all. A bond that can never be replaced. I just want you to know that I'm here for you in whatever capacity whenever. If you need to cry, cry. If you need to yell, yell. Do whatever you need to do to ease the pain. Your mom loved you unconditionally & she knew you loved her the same. - Love Wendy##imported-begin##Wendy##imported-end##

“ To my Uncle Vance, thank you for standing by my aunt's side. You and Auntie Winnie are an example of what marriage should be. Through sickness and in health your love for her remained the same, it remained constant. I can't imagine how you are feeling at this time. You of all people already know that you will find comfort in the Lord. Since it was HIS will for her to go home, he will help ease and bring peace to your heart. Just because Auntie Winnie is gone from this earth I'm still now and forever your niece. Call on me at anytime for anything. --Love Always, Wendy##imported-begin##Wendy##imported-end##

“ To The Swift Family,

May the LORD keep you wrapped in his beautiful arms. If there is anyway that I can help you , feel free to call. My prayers goes out to you. Winnie was a beautiful and a kind person. She was the same all of the time. I am going to miss talking to her as we bump into each other at Cityside.

Love,

“ My deepest sympathy to you at this time of sorrow. She is in God's care now and what better care could we ever ask for her? Now I pray for your comfort in the days ahead. God bless you and keep you in His tender care and love for all eternity." From Vicki &
