“ To the family of Sylvester Clary, Jr.:

I am sorry to hear of the loss of Sylvester. The bible promises everlasting life. Jehovah always tells the truth, he does not lie. Sylvester can rest now. We have to continue our struggle to survive this wicked system.

The bible gives us much hope and comfort ". 2 Corinthian 1:3-4. Jehovah is the, "God of all comfort" and HE helps us understand how He and Jesus Christ feel about death. Death is an enemy that pursues us all. None of us can out run it. Jehovah is far more powerful than death. Jehovah is our rescuer who has already shown (by Jesus resurrection) that he can defeat this enemy. 1 Corinthians 15.26 (As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing).

John 5:28-29, Jesus said "all those in the memorial tombs will come out" and there will be "a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous". “ Dear Cheryl, I am so sorry. The battle is over and Sylvester is in peace at last. I still remember him coming in 714 to see you looking so good and always smiling. I hope you will find peace in knowing that Sylvester is in a better place. Stay strong and know that your friends are here for you. Love, Sherrie###imported-begin###Sherrie Milkovic###imported-end##

“ My Favorite Bar-n-Law

Only god knows the sorrow in our hearts, we will miss your presents here with us but we have so many wonderful memories, your spirit will live in this family for generations. Memories like biting all the babies fingers until they got older and started just giving them to you. You didn't want them little dirty fingers then, but you still bit them until they stop giving them to you. All the advice you gave to us all, whether we wanted to here it or not because we called you. And the family favorite which we still haven't figured out, how you and Cheryl always won in spades. And on a personal note, thanks for being a good brother (That's stright from Tony) because you helped raise my husband and that's a good thing...
