“ Dear Nita, Brianne, grandchildren and mother of Yvonne, I first want to say I am so very sorry, I received Nita's message about Yvonne on New Year's Day. Yvonne, loved you all so dearly. Many a conversation we shared through e-mails on updates of her concerns, love, plans and adulation of you all. My heart is very heavy with the knowing that I will have to share this sad news with Dr. Barnes. May I speak for her in saying that we send our love and condolences. We are greatly sorry that we could not be there to share in Yvonne's homegoing ceremony. Be strong in the knowing that Yvonne nor the Lord has left any of you!
With Warm Regards, Rosalie Hernandez###imported-begin###Rosalie Hernandez (Assistant to Dr. C. Barnes)###imported-end##

“ Aunt Mit, my thoughts and prayers are with you and with Denise's children. Even though I cannot physically be there, know that I am in spirit. Denise is resting now after a long fight and I truly believe that she is in God's hands in that place that He has prepared for her. I will always cherish my cousin and the times we spent always excited for her to come home.##imported-begin##Ronnie English##imported-end##

“ Dear Aunt Mildred,

We rejoice according to St. John: 14, Denise is in a place that was prepared for her. We rejoice also according to 2Corinthians 5:8, although absent from the body is indeed present with the Lord. I extends my love, prayers, and heartfelt sympathy to you and the entire Gordy Family.

So may the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Your loving niece,
Vanessa##imported-begin##Vanessa English Alderson##imported-end##

“ *To the Gordy Family, Only God can know the pain you feel at this time but know many share your sorrow. Yvonne's creative nature, sense of family, and unique laugh will be greatly missed. Our friendship began at Mumford and grew while working on the 20 year reunion activities. My last conversation with her was at the Classic at Ford Field. She shared her health concerns but with a smile said "I trust God in whatever he plans". You are in our prayers and God will guide your steps and give you strength .
