“ *To Carol and Doreatha:
Sorry, that I could not be there for you physically, but in the spirit I am with you. Praying for you and your families that God will encourage and sustain you all as you go through this sorrowful time. Ps 121 Says I will lift up my eyes to the hills-where my help come from.
Look to God, the author and finisher of out faith for strength in the days to come. Love You, better known as “ Please accept my sympathy during your time of bereavement; Sometime we may feel paralyzed by the loss of a love one. At such times we need to go to God's word for comfort. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4: "the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort, who comfort us in all our tribulation."###imported-begin###Deborah Gipson###imported-end###

“ To the Family,

I am thinking of you. May memories comfort you! I have so many many good memories of Zada. I've known her most of my life.

I will keep the family in prayer; she's gone but she is in a better place

I thank God for giving me the years that I had with Zada and it's a true testament that Love lives forever!

Zada a Mother, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother and adopted me and my sister as her other children that really says something about the kind of person Zada was. Love Lives Forever!
