“ Hey cuz. Next week it will be 14 years since your passing and it still doesn't feel like your gone. Feels like you live out of state. I believe many of us feel this way.....in denial. You was more of a little brother to me than a cousin. I loved you and I will always love you. Oh and Tay the only one left that's not a parent. Yeah we tell him too that he don't want wait till his 30s to chase a baby lol. But continue to rest. We all miss and love you 🥺

“ I'm still grieving the lost of your body. I miss your smile and your silly ways. I miss you cooking dinner and keeping everyone entertained. I have lost the star and glow in my eyes. Know that I loved more than anything in this world. Love forever mom.

“ Nephew I loved you sooo much., I still don't know why your life had to end so quickly. It is still difficut for me to wake up and know that you are gone. I know you are in a better place, but would it be selfish of me to want you here back on earth with me? Well I want to be selfish because I do want you back, I miss you telling me to get your mom truck so just me and you can hang out and go get something to eat and then go over to J.B.'s house and play some cards. I love you nephew from the bottom of my heart. I am still having a hard time coping with your death I think about you every minute of the day please give me some envcouragement, strength, and wisdom to keep going on until we meet again in heaven I can't do it alone anymore nepew.
