“ Mr. Terrell Montez Woods

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.
It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ Hello Woods family my name is Christian and I just wanted to send to you my condolences I'm deeply sorry for your lost and would like to give you a comforting scripture found at revelation 21:4 and it reads and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. I hope you and your family find comfort.##imported-begin##R.travis##imported-end##

“ To the Woods family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort through the Word of God. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..."-Isaiah 25:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##
