“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Rev.21:3,4. Please read it. . I hope it will bring some comfort to you and your family in the coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolence goes out to the Thomas family. Jesus says, Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all those that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29. May you find comfort thru the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ I Sincerely Offer My Condolence: Words seem insufficient at this dire time. Although nobody denies the certainty of death, we all need comfort in the reality of it. May you find real comfort and relief, and as a result, begin to recover gradually from the pain. Love from those around you will help you through the days ahead. The perious memories of Terrence Anthony Thomas will bring you comfort. However, even in the face of calamity you can have hope. God will comfort and bless you at this critical time. Do not let your hearts be troubled (John 14:27). Complete reliance on "the God of all comfort" will help to endure his bereavement (2Cor. 1:3,4).##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey McClendon##imported-end##
