“ My deepest Sympathy to the family, my cousins. Had I known he was this ill, I would have made an effort to come to see him. There is always a brighter light for us. He has walked into the light and is waiting for us.

“ 1 Thessalonians 4:13:

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.##imported-begin##Andre E. Thornhill##imported-end##

“ Dear Brother,

I'm writing this letter to say how much you have impacted my life. Growing up as a little boy, I've always looked at you as a father figure as well as a brother. There are so many things that we have in common from tinkering around with electronics, model airplanes to automobiles. Every thing that you've done, I've always wanted to do.

From the moment that you found out that you were sick, I watched and observed how strong you were dealing with your pain. You never had self pity but always a positive attitude. Although we may not have talked on a daily basis, you were always on my mind. Every time I would end our call I would say "you get better", your response would be "I'm going to be alright" and that seem to amaze me every time.

I really enjoyed our last conversation in which we talked about how proud you were of me. You also gave me more advice as to being a good husband and family man. If I would have realized that would be our last conversation, I would have never put down that phone.

It's time for you to receive your blessing and enjoy your rest in the Kingdom of God, for you have fought long and hard. Tell Mom and Dad hello and I look forward to seeing you all again someday.

From your Loving Brother,

*Andre E. Thornhill##imported-begin##Andre E.
