“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one and father. As I read what you said about your father I could so relate to the values you said he gave you. My father, too, instilled in me moral and spiritual values that have carried me over the years. But you know, we have also a Heavenly father who cares for us dearly (1 Peter 5:7). And, He has promised to do undue the hurt we now feel of having lost our earthly fathers, for he has promised a resurrection of all those sleeping in his memory (John 5:28,29)including your father and mine. Soon, 'He will wipe out every tear from their (our) eyes and death will be no more'(Rev. 21:4). May these Scriptural thoughts help to soothe your heart, as they have mine, knowing that your Heavenly father cares for you and will restore your earthly father to you. Take courage, for we know our Heavenly cannot lie and will do ALL that He has promised (Titus 1:2).##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Daddy,
No matter what I tried, I could not give you the the respectful homegoing that you deserved. And for that, I will always carry that guilt with me. You and only you have been the only person that treated me the way a daughter should be treated! You never ever lied to me about anything, always told me the honest truth, wether or not it was needed or not. You taught me my only values, morals, and life rules that I will carry on to my own children. I love you n may you Rest on The Other Side. Please sit back and relax, no more 10-20 miles aday.
I'll see you when I get there!! Your Baby Girl, POOTER-
