“ Dear family, I am saddened to learn of your loss. It is at times such as this that we are able to find comfort in the scriptures. At John 5:28, 29 it states in part, "Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ I am truly sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. May the comfort that our Heavenly Father, Jehovah gives sustain you during this distressful time. Psalms 46:1 encourages us with these words: "God is for us a refuge and strength, A help that is readily to be found during distresses." We are not alone. The scriptures offer much comfort and hope for the coming days ahead. (Revelation 21:3,4. John 5:28, 29). My deepest sympathies.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

may your own faith in God sustain you, bring you comfort today, courage for tomorrow, and hope in your heart always.

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##
