In this time of sorrow, our expressions of condolence & sympathy are being forwarded. Ps30:5 tells us weeping may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.God is the source of all our comfort. Your Father has fought the good fight. He has finished the race. He is at rest from his labor. Be comforted.

“ I can still recall seeing Mr. & Mrs. Woodland sitting on the front porch in the afternoons watching the children run up and down the street without a care in the world. The children would often gather at the Woodland home and play for hours, under the careful eye and supervision of Mr. & Mrs. Woodland the neighborhood - parents to many. Mr. Woodland always had a smile and a kind word. We will miss your physical presence; however, your spirit, smile and kind words will live forever.

“ To Aunt Carrie and the rest of the Woodland Family:
We are saddened by Uncle Mike's passing and join with you in remembering and celebrating his life. Uncle Mike was a wonderful uncle. He has always shown love, compassion, and generosity. As children, we always looked forward to your visits to Tennessee. They are among some of the happiest memories of my childhood. I hope that you will take comfort in knowing that Uncle Mike's life was well lived and serves as a wonderful example to all of us about how we should treat others -- with love, kindness, and acceptance. We will miss him, of course, but the rich contribution he made to our lives will help make sure that he is never forgotten and that he will always live in our hearts. May God comfort you and bless each of you.##imported-begin##Francine Giles Madrey##imported-end##

“ Uncle Mike will be greatly missed. I will always remember his big smile when he entered the room. Aunt Carrie, I know that you are a strong woman, because we are a strong family. I pray that the memories that you hold will give you the strength you need to continue on. You have a bountiful family that you are surrounded by. Cling to them...they will give you the strength that you will need also. Know that God is able to keep us from falling. To the children (my cousins), losing a father is extremely tough. You never get over it and I can't say that it gets easier, but I do know that I am happy knowing that he is in a better place than I am. I love you all, even the little ones I have not met yet. I pray that we all get together soon. Be blessed.###imported-begin##Kim Clark-Carney###imported-end##
