“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ To a man who was the only one in 20+ years who could call me “Red” and get away with it. There was something in your spirit that always make me smile the moment I saw you. You truly will be missed and I will forever remember the conversations we have had. I pray for you now that you sit before God with all the love, peace, and serenity that we so search for here on earth; May that be yours for Eternity. I Love You###imported-begin##Sherri ###imported-end##

“ To the Hurd Family, I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength from God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states " God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more". This is something that we all can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin##Sierra Sargent###imported-end##

“ Our Heavenly Father, Jehovah knows how deep our grief is. We long for the touch of a hand, the sound of a voice that has been silenced. He is merciful and kind. He will comfort our grieving hearts and wipe the tears from our eyes. He understands us, because he created us. (Revelation 7:16-17) He is the one who tells us: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) “For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’”###imported-begin###Mrs. Malone###imported-end##
