“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ *It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.”

“ Dear Gordon family, I am so sorry for your loss. Many people wonder if God cares about the suffering we experience when we loose a loved one in death. God never causes what is wicked. "Far be it from the true God to act wickedly, and the Almighty to act unjustly!" says the Bible in Job 34:10. God has a loving purpose for humans. That is why Jesus taught us to pray:"Our Father in the heavens, let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth" (Matthew 6:9,10) God cares so deeply about us that he has gone to great lengths to make the fulfillment of his purpose a certainty. “ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Gordon family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
