“ It's that time of year again that's particularly more difficult than others. Holidays especially Christmas, hasn't been the same since you went to Heaven. Christmas Eve. Used to be so special, spending time with you and mom and the family for your birthday. Now, you are with your beloved sister auntie Mae. Her transition to heaven has now made it even more difficult. What do we do without you both now? We miss you so much. I still find myself saying who knew life would be so different without you? I've needed your advice what seems like a million times since you've been gone..... I'm sure you and auntie are up there having a ball. Continue to rejoice in Heaven?. Love you pops...

“ My heart goes out to the McGhee family. The pain of losing your dad is great. Hold on to the precious memories you've built in your heart. Even though you are deeply grieved right now, thinking of the good times will bring a little smile across your face. We will see Mr. McGhee again. That's what the bible says. John 5:28-29 "all those in the memorial tombs WILL come out". Jesus not only died for all of us, he suffered. Jesus loved us so much that he wanted to leave his heavenly home, knowing that blood needed to be poured out to save mankind, so we can live. Jesus did this for Mr. McGhee too. Revelations 21-3-5; Isaiah 26:19.

“ My dearest father. It still hasn't registered I'm my heart and mind that u are gone. Each time I come in the house I find myself looking for u. Life will never b the same. U always told me how proud of me u were. U always took great care of mom and us. I promise u that we will look after mom, she isn't doing too good but we will help each other get thru u not being with us. Its so hard dad. We miss u so much. And to watch mom is heartbreaking. what do we do without u? Sleep well. U tried your best. Until we meet again. I love you.....Stephanie##imported-begin##Stephanie##imported-end##
