“ Patty,
Thorn was a supportive, responsible dedicated father and special friend for over 17 years. Highly respected among his peers and loved by his friends and family. Thorn was a "peacemaker" one who sought to bring harmony and reconciliation between those who were estranged and seeking to produce right relationships between people. "Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God." Matthew 5:9 (KJV). May he rest in peace.
My prayers are with you daily.

“ Pat, Taneca, Hunter and Dirk;

We are very sorry to hear about the loss of Torin. We know he loved each of you, protected you and cared for you.

In the sorrow and pain however, God has given you two special promises.

One, the promise of living forever with Him and your family once again.

And second, the promise of supernatural, special attention; a guiding hand, and protection from harm.

Psalm 68:5

"Father to the fatherless, defender of widows - this is God, whose dwelling is holy."

We are praying for you and are here as your neighbors to lend a hand or an ear whenever you need it.

“ Please know that the entire Thornhill Family are in my prayers! I met Torin while at Wayne State University in 1988. He was always simultaneously full of humor and insight. Later in life we were neighbors in Green Acres. Since I am now living in South Africa I had not seen him for many years, but cherish fond memories of him, especially when we were pledging! Times like this often render it impossible to be "Strong", but put your hope in Christ and know He will sustain you. When we are weak it is Him that makes us strong

“ Dear my sweet sister...
The Broken Chain

"We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again."

My daddy would say to me

Miss Me But Let Me Go. When I come to the end of the road, and the sun as set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little-but not too long, and not with your head bowed low, remember the love that we once shared. Miss me but let me go. For this a journey we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know. Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me but let me go.##imported-begin##Morgan Foreman ##imported-end##

“ Dear Tanea and family, loosing a parent, I know from personal experience, is one of the heavy losses. May you find God's presence with you as you journey through this time of grief. My oldest used to say this prayer, perhaps it will help. Dear Lord, my heart is crushed, please help me in this time of loss and overwhelming grief. I don't understand why my life is filled with this pain and heartache. I turn my eyes to you as I seek to find the strength as the days start to drift by. Though I can't see past today, please show me your compassion, Lord. Help me through the pain so that I will hope again. Please help me to stay faithful, hear your words of comfort and not despair; to quietly wait for your salvation so that I too may rejoice in your arms. Now and forever more I will love them and you, amen.###imported-begin##Anita Miller###imported-end##

“ Tanea, there are many memories I can share with you about your dad. He was a good man and I know that he loves his children and will be there with you all through eternity. I had the pleasure of speaking with him within the last few months. We shared memories and laughs, his worries and his strengths. He was a very strong man and cherished the times you spent together. There was a time during our conversation that he told me how much he appreciated you and all that you have done for him. You have displayed the characteristics of a loving daughter and a strong woman. What you have done for your father was the most admirable, mature, unselfish acts that a parent would cherish forever from their child. You were there by his side and gave him the strength that he needed. Words can not express how proud I am of you for being as strong as you are at such a young age! I pray that the Lord and our Heavenly Father gives you more strength through these difficult times. I love you with all of my heart and am here for you whenever you need me. I know you will continue to mentor your brothers and share loving memories with them as they grow up to be young men. “ Although I only knew Torin because of his care and treatment at University of Michigan, we shared some wonderful time together talking about things that were most important to him. First and foremost was his love for his three children. It was hard for him to move away from the role of rescuer. He appreciated all the things the kids were doing to help out. I pray that he is now at peace. He will always have a spot in my heart. Pat, may you and the children have the strength he had to help get you through this sad time. Tanea, he was so proud of you. “ To The Entire Thornhill Family:

Your loved one, Thorn, gave something special to you all. Hold on to it, linger not in his suffering for he has been relieved. Yet hold on to the goodness Thorn shared with you and left for you to have forever.

In Prayer,
Caronell LeMalle Diew

*****

My Dear Tanea,

I will always cherish the wonderful recaps of the moments you and your Father shared together since the day you were born. I loved to hear you talk about your special times with him. All the school activities, recitals, motorcycle rides and just "Daddy & Daughter Chats". Thorn was a good & special person; a part of him will always be with us in you, Hunter & Dirk. Most of all, I am in awe of the amazing strong, beautiful young lady you have become. It is a blessed testament of your desire and the influence of your parents and extended family. May God continue to bless you and the entire "Thornhill Family", for strength, courage, and healing.

“ What can one really say at a time like this. Life is short, sometimes too short. Pull those close to you closer? Hold on tighter? I meant to bring him another smoothie. He loved the one Jodi, the kids and I brought him. So much so he wouldn't let me throw out the little ice remaining at the bottom of the cup. Torin said "I'm just going to wait till it melts and drink it" Like a fool I thought I had time. I was going to just swing by on one of those nights and bring him more. But now he's gone and I don't know if I'll ever get another smoothie again. God bless his soul. I'm so sorry.##imported-begin##Brian McKinley##imported-end##

“ To Tanea and family;
God saw one of his flowers that needed to be nurtured more than this ole' world could do for it and he came back to gather him up so that he could restore all that was needed back to him.
Tanea we love you very much and want you to know that your Dad has gone on to be in a better place. Remember to trust that you will see him again, and God will carry you when you need him. Take care of your sibling's and remind them of the love that your Dad had for you all.
