“ *I just cant believe it. Trevor lived across the street from me in oak park, Michigan when were in Elementary school, and moved away when he was about 14 or 15. We were really close friends. I lost contact with him over the years. My paretns told me he came by last year to come and visit me. He told my parents that he always thought about me and really wanted to see me. Unfortuanly i wasnt there to greet him, because i now live in New Jersey. However my childhood memories with him will always remain. He was always someone who cared about his friends, and would do anything to make them happy, he had a heart of gold, and even as a child you were able to see it. My memories with him on the basketball court when we were kids will always be cherished. He always picked me on his team, even though i was never that good. My condolonces go out to his paretns Mr.and Mrs.Gaines. Sincerely,
Daniel Kagan.##imported-begin##Daniel Kagan##imported-end##*

“ Family, I was extremely saddened to hear of Trevor’s passing to be with our Lord. I thought about him as a little boy looking out of his Grandparents front door on Kenosha as he watched us talk and play in front of the house. After reading all of the posts on blogs, emails even an article on the University of Vermont sports page were he attended school. I realize that Trever not only grew up to be a dominant 6’7” B-ball player, but he also grew up to be a good man who made a number of people feel very special in his life time. When I hear all of the warm and wonderful comments about Trever, I think of each and every one of you. I know you played a part in who he is as a son, a cousin, a nephew, a friend, a brother and most of all as a Christian man. In our life time, I have come to realize that a great life is not weighed by health, wealth, longevity, or the wonderful places we have been blessed to see. What a great life is based on is the love that you have shown and received from others through out the years. Jesus asked us above all to love one another and it is apparent that Trever left a lot of love in the hearts of the people he knew. Trever has created many warm memories that we can always recall and share, rather it is watching him smile as a baby boy, play basketball as a young man, or give words of encouragement as a friend. Trever came into this world a little baby boy full of promise and he left here a Christian man. So as promised may he be granted eternal life with our Father in heaven until we all meet again.

Brother Gary and Sister Glennie, Raishawn, Clearance “Peanut”, Robbie, Marco and family I don’t see you all every day but I love you like we were still on the block. I am praying for each and every one of you.##imported-begin##Carl Johnson (Kam) and family.##imported-end##

“ To the Gaines Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". Death at any age is tragic because it's an enemy of mankind, especially when one is so young (1 Corinthians 15:26). However, our Loving Creator has promised that He will destroy death forever! (Revelation 20:14) and that the time is coming, very soon, when "all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out..." Our God has also promised that "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore." (Revelation 21:3,4) May the God of All Comfort give you strength beyond what is normal to cope with the death of your young loved one. And, in the days and weeks ahead, as you recall your many cherished memories of Jermaine, may God's Word, the Bible, remind you of God's promises to you. Have faith in them, for they are sure to come true (Titus 1:2). My sincere and deepest heartfelt sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ We've prayed, we've smiled, we've thought about the 6 plus foot tall young man that we watched run up and down neighborhood streets, grow in spirituality as he, sister and brother were led by his parents/grandparents to Mt. Hebron, graduated, went away to college and still took the time to visit in his adult years and tell of his dream to play basketball. What a tender, powerful spirit he portrayed. Yes, Treavor is going to missed yet always remembered as a quiet, peaceful and wonderful young man. He was love and is loved. Grab faith, trust God's decisions and know that he was just lent to you for a little time for you to love and Oh, Glennie, you and Gary did that well. Thanks for allowing God to let you be his parents and sharing him with us. In Christian Love and Prayers.

“ Glennie & Gary...I want to extend my deepest Sympathy to you and the family and I know dear Trevor is going to be missed. He was loved so much by you and others, what a great son and young man he was. Our hearts go out to you and just know the pain will be there but just call on God to help you through it and he will...I can be a witness because he helped me. We love you so much....

“ Your loss is shared by many who care. Death, at any age is tragic and an enemy of us all. Trevor should have had eternity ahead of him. The words to ease your pain can only come from the bible. Matthew 11:28-30, Jesus says, “Come to me all you who are loaded down . . . I will refresh you”. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 Jehovah is the God of all comfort, who will comfort us in all our tribulation. Please throw your burden, upon him, because he cares for you. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.###imported-begin###Liz###imported-end##
