“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Bloodworth family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I'm writing you because I know that at this moment the family really needs to be encouraged. Nothing is more encouraging then the promise that gods has for us. Soon there will be no more death. No more pain heartache or tears. Please read Revelation 21:4 from God's word the bible. God really loves James Cole very much. May the god of tender mercy be with the family##imported-begin##Kelynn Salley##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. Please take comfort in the love and support from friends and family. Never miss an opportunity to tell your loved ones what they truly mean to you. May you find peace and comfort knowing Mr. Bloodworth is not suffering. I hope the happier memories of his life help you endure the days ahead. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14, John 5:28 & 29, 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Bloodworth family,
Please accept this post as an expression of my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Vancourt. I am writing you to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The bible's clear teaching removes confusion about what happens to us at the time of our death. The wise man Job expressed it this way when he said at (Job 14:14) "If an able bodied man dies, can he live again..." this is a hope that I have for my parents, and it's one that I wish for Mr. Vancourt. May the God of tender mercy be a comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
