“ Vaughn, thanks for everything and congratulations on a life well-lived. I'm happy we got a chance to speak before you left.

I appreciate some of the wisdom and knowledge you've graced me with during my adolescence. You've set a good example of what a provider should be in a household.

When you let a scrawny 17 year old version of myself take his driver's license test your new Truck, it showed not only a lot of confidence in me, but also courage on your part... that was a big truck to try to parallel park!

Few other people had confidence in me at that point in my life. Getting my license was the first step at getting the ball rolling in my life, and I haven't looked back since.

Thanks for the leap of faith. I vow to not let it go to waste.##imported-begin##Mark R. Collins##imported-end##

“ Memory is a special place in our hearts where we can find comfort in the treasured thoughts of those we love, and hold dear. ~ unknown ~ We offer our sincere condolence on the loss of Mr. Strickland. May the outpouring of sympathy, and the kind acts of friends and strangers, give you the comfort needed to endure the days ahead. Please know, your loss is felt by many who care. May you find the strength needed to move forward, knowing that he is not suffering. If our Grand Creator knows the names of all the stars in the heavens, surely, he know the deed of each person who lived and died to bring them back to life, including, Mr. Strickland. He promises, all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear Jesus voice and come out. Proverbs 3:5-7; Isaiah 26:19 & John 5:28-29##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
